By: Anna Adams

While there were a few withdrawn stock this week, numbers across both species increased with many hoping to capture a premium on the hope that the forecast rain event does eventuate. Sheep and lambs were up by 3,000 to total 40,389 head, while cattle numbers jumped 1,000 to 4,610, with big numbers out of QLD achieving excellent clearance rates and well exceeding vendor expectations in most cases.

Well grown unjoined young ewes out of western NSW were the flavour of the week, selling from $132 to a top of $150 for November shorn 15 month olds weighing 51kg out of Hay. Scanned young ewes sold from $82 to $96, unjoined mixed age lines made $60 to $75, and scanned old ewes sold from $88.50 to $101.

New season merino wether lambs sold well, in particular out of western NSW while last's years drop experienced a tougher job. At Ivanhoe, April/May drop Greenfield & Collandra blood woolly lambs weighing 36kg sold for $71 three different ways, and the second draft of 3,780 head at 30kg made $61, to six different buyers. Wether hoggets sold from $52 to a top of $79 for 45kg wethers with a big jacket out of Broken Hill.

Store lambs were steady on last week's prices. 34kg-36kg first cross lambs sold from $92 to $94, and 39kg lambs made $93.50 to $102.50.
