Consignments increased and quality remained fair to good, as large percentages of prime conditioned trade and heavier weighted lambs were offered. There were fair numbers of the plainer lightweights also penned and the usual buyers competed in a cheaper market.

Lightweight lambs slipped $2 to $4/head, as restockers were able to purchase the heavier weights at reduced prices. Trade weights eased $5 to $6 and ranged from $95 to $136/head, or an average price from 574c to 584c/kg cwt. The heavier weights lost $6, as the lighter end sold from $128 to $145, whilst the heaviest reached $165/head. These categories recorded an average price from 555c to 568c/kg cwt.

Sheep were hard to source and quality was also reduced, week-on-week. Prices slipped $2, however mainly due to quality issues, as the medium and heavy weights ranged from $66 to $112/head, or an average price from 316c to 430c/kg cwt.
