Numbers increased 70% for the first sale of the new financial year. Lambs made up the majority of the yarding with many in store condition and large numbers of light weight Merino's available. Ewe quality and weight was better than recent sales with ewe hogget supplies limited along with wether and ram supplies. Competition for lambs was very selective with better drafts easing, however plain and light drafts experienced solid falls with many sales in excess of $15/head cheaper. Ewe and wether prices remained solid at similar prices.

Light lamb sold between $85 and $118 to be back close to $20/head. Trade lambs made $90 to $140, with better drafts back $10 but the secondary lines in excess of $20/head cheaper. Heavy lambs sold to $161 but were mostly $10 cheaper, between $115 and $161/head. Very light and store lambs met with solid grazier, feeder and live export interest with most sales back less than $5, at $49 to $98/head.

Ewe prices were solid with heavy drafts firm to $7 dearer on increased weight and wool length, most sold from $82 to $95/head and very heavy ewes with a $13 skin made to $100/head. Medium weight ewes made $56 to $86, to average $75, to be $4/head cheaper. Light drafts were equal at $45 to $58/head. Wethers remained firm with heavy weights topping at $130 to processors and heavy export drafts made from $90 to $120/head. Better medium export wethers made $88 to $105 with lighter and store drafts between $55 and $85/head, including wether lamb drafts. Ram prices were solid with the best ram lambs to $110 and other young ram drafts from $45 to $85/head.
