It was a much better quality yarding of lambs, with greater numbers of new season lambs in good condition along with a better selection of old lambs. There were still good numbers of lightweight Merinos to suit light lamb orders and restockers.

Despite the better quality of the yarding and in line with other markets, new season lambs were $5/head cheaper. The 18kg to 22kg 3 score new season lambs sold from $80 to $126/head. Old lambs were $3 to $5 cheaper, with 18kg to 22kg trade weights selling from $75 to $117.50/head. Lightweight lambs were $5 to $7 cheaper, with 12kg to 18kg 2 score crossbreds selling from $37 to $79, while Merinos sold from $40 to $78/head. Lightweight lambs to the restockers sold at similar prices, with crossbreds selling between $20.50 and $75.50, while Merinos to restockers ranged from $20 to $75.50/head. Live exporters were active on suitable lines of wether lambs, paying from $70 to $97.50/head.

It was a mixed yarding of mutton, with some top lines of heavy weight ewes and wethers along with the usual drafts of plainer lines. The plainer conditioned lightweight ewes were firm in price, assisted by good restocker interest. The better medium and heavy weight ewes though were up to $10/head cheaper. The 1 and 2 score ewes sold from $20 to $67.50 to processors and $70/head to restockers. The 3 and 4 score ewes to processors made between $60 and $81.50 for Merinos and $79.50/head for crossbreds. Wethers were also cheaper, with 2 scores selling from $40 to $77, while the better medium and heavy weights sold from $70 to $108/head. Live exporters were active, paying from $70 to $96/head for wethers. The ram market was similar, with Merinos selling to $30, while white Dorpers sold to $50/head.
