A lift in ewe mutton supplies saw the yarding increase by close to 70% after last week's rain affected sale. Lamb numbers were very weak with only small numbers of prime lambs offered and moderate supplies of light weight and store lambs available. Ewe quality was reasonably good with solid supplies of heavy weights and large supplies of trade and processor mutton. Limited competition due to one lamb processor not operating and limited purchases by one mutton processor saw the market move significantly lower.

New seasons lambs eased by $2 to $5 with the lighter weight and air freight lambs selling between $45 and $85/head. Trade lambs 18kg to 22kg made $80 to $105/head.

Old lambs were very plain. Light lambs made $55 to $76, back $3 to $7 with the trade old seasons drafts $72 to $98/head similar to last week. Live export feeders purchased better store wether drafts at prices from $50 to $80/head. Light lambs to restockers made $30 to $61 with the Merino drafts mostly $30 to $53, mostly $5/head easier.

Ewe supplies exceeded demand with heavy drafts most affected. Heavy 3 and 4 score ewes fell $15, with most sales between $60 and $84/head. Prime ewe mutton made $48 to $78 to also fall in excess of $10 with the 2 score processor drafts $44 to $70, back $7/head. Restockers were active on better mature ewes with sales between $58 and $61, up to $14/head cheaper. Merino ewe hogget sales were easier by $5 with prices from $42 to $79/head, but quality was not up to last weeks supply. Wether sales eased slightly with heavy drafts to processors making $70 to $86 and select drafts to live export between $70 and $90/head. Lighter and store wethers remained close to firm with most sales between $50 and $80/head. Rams were mixed with better young drafts $30 to $78 to feeders and live export and old drafts from $5 to $30/head. The best ram lambs sold to a top of $90/head to processors.
